HARCOURT against SHERARD and his Wife.

Mr. HATCHER's AFFIDAVIT.

THAT about Midsummer last, the Defendant the Lady Anderson discoursing with this Deponent touching the Award in question, the said Defendant declared, that She and her Husband Mr. Sherard were dissatisfied with the same; and in particular, that a sufficient Summ was not allowed for the Funeral of the said Sir Richard Anderson.

That he then informed her, that a Decree was pronounced for the Confirmation thereof, and that it was then a proper Time to contest the same, if she had any Intentions of so doing, before the said Decree was signed and inrolled; and this Deponent about that time caused a Copy of the said Award at her request to be delivered to her, or her Order.

That soon after he informed Tho. Filmer Esq; since deceased, of the aforesaid Discourse, who told the Deponent that he was desired originally to be Council for the said Lady in this Cause, by the Right Honourable the Lord Chancellor of Ireland her Father or to the same Effect; and that the said Sherard had before the Hearing of the Cause been with him at the Rolls, and there had given him Directions to open the said Lady's Answer, and to consent for him and her to the said Decree, and that he had done so accordingly, or to that effect.
